Abu Dhabi, UAE August 17 2011: The final of Play for Life Ramadan Football Tournament promises to be an interesting game whichever way it lands as the two previous cup holders are pitched against each other in the semi-finals.

Two time cup winner Abu Dhabi Health Services Company (SEHA) clinched a place in the semi-finals of ICLDC's annual Ramadan event (Thursday August 18) after seeing off strong contender, YAHSAT in an amazing 8-0 win, becoming the Tournament's highest match score, to boot.

SEHA will face the 2009 cup winner Abu Dhabi Aircraft Technologies after ADAT saw off venue host, ADNEC (3-1).

Meanwhile, both Mubadala teams lost ground and are out of the tournament. First time entry, Etihad Rail thrashed Mubadala B (8-0) in a second goal-heavy match.

It was another new-to-the-tournament entry, Abu Dhabi Securities (ADS) who saw off Mubadala A in a 2-0 game.

The two newcomers, ADS and Etihad Rail also meet in the semis.

ICLDC's spokesperson, Carol Sansour Dabdoub confirmed that His Highness Sheikh Tahnoon bin Saeed bin Saif Al Nahyan will present the trophies (Thursday evening). It is Sheikh Tahnoon's second visit this year. He played the Tournament's opening ball on Sunday.

There are three trophies waiting to be taken home – one for the tournament winner, and one each for the first and second runners up.

Play for Life is part of 'Diabetes-Knowledge-Action', the nationwide public health awareness campaign under the patronage of Her Highness Sheikha Fatima bint Mubarak.
